Information pursuant to EU Regulation 679/16 (GDPR)

Your personal data (hereinafter, the "Data") will be processed by the Liceo G. Galilei of Potenza with or without the aid of electronic instruments and any possible software, including through their communication and dissemination to third parties, for the purposes set out in the aforementioned release ("Release") and in this information notice (collectively and individually, the "Purposes"), in compliance with the conditions of lawfulness ex art. 6, lett. of the GDPR. Providing Data for the Purposes is optional, but refusal will prevent you from participating in the Call. The Data will be processed, within the G. Galilei High School in Potenza, exclusively by employees and/or collaborators belonging to the offices involved for the Purposes (or some of them only), including the management of your participation to the Call. These employees and/or collaborators act as data processors, following specific instructions on confidentiality.

The Data may also be processed by third parties that the Liceo Galileo Galilei in Potenza may use to carry out related, instrumental or support activities for the organization of the event covered by the Call. The data consisting of the name and surname of the participants in the Call for Entries may be disseminated in relation to the use and promotion of the Project, where their status as authors of the Project is given.

Without prejudice to the cases in which the Liceo Galileo Galilei of Potenza has a legitimate interest in retaining the Data, the Data shall be retained until the exercise by the holders of the right to request and obtain its deletion pursuant to Article 17 of the GDPR. The rights set out in Articles 15-22 of the GDPR may be exercised at any time by contacting the data controller of the Galileo Galilei High School of Potenza, by sending an email to the pec address pzps040007@pec.istruzione.it
